What To Expect

Pottawattamie County is continuing a commitment to make communication with its residents a top priority.

No formal deliberation or action from the Board of Supervisors will take place during this informational discussion.

PowerPoint slides will accompany brief presentations from several County departments, before concluding with a question-and-answer forum with those in attendance.

Weekly Board of Supervisors meetings are held every Tuesday at 10:00am, on the second floor of the Pottawattamie County Courthouse in Council Bluffs. Meetings are open to the public.
